2. Such compensation shall amount to the market value of the investment expropriated immediately before the expropriatory action was taken or became public knowledge in such way as to affect the value of the investment, whichever is earlier. Article 9 Disputes between a Contracting Party and an Investor of the other Contracting Party

1. For the purpose of solving disputes with respect to investments between a Contracting Party and an investor of the other Contracting Party and without prejudice to Article 10 of this Agreement (Disputes between the Contracting Parties), consultations will take place between the parties concerned.
2. If these consultations do not result in a solution within six months from the date of the written request for consultations, the investor may submit the dispute either to the courts or the administrative tribunals of the Contracting Party in whose territory the investment has been made or to international arbitration. In the latter event the investor has the choice between either of the following:

Article 10

Disputes between the Contracting Parties

1. Disputes between the Contracting Parties regarding the interpretation or application of the provisions of this Agreement shall if possible be settled through diplomatic channels.
2. If both Contracting Parties cannot reach an agreement within six months after the beginning of the dispute between themselves, the latter shall, upon request of either Contracting Party, be submitted to an arbitral tribunal of three members. Each Contracting Party shall appoint one arbitrator, and these two arbitrators shall nominate a chairman who shall be a national of a third State.
3. If one of the Contracting Parties has not appointed its arbitrator and has not followed the invitation of the other Contracting Party to make that appointment within two months, the arbitrator shall be appointed upon the request of that Contracting Party by the President of the International Court of Justice.
4. If both arbitrators cannot reach an agreement about the choice of the chairman within two months after their appointment, the latter shall be appointed upon the request of either Contracting Party by the President of the International Court of Justice.

6. Subject to other provisions made by the Contracting Parties, the tribunal shall determine its own procedure. Each Contracting Party shall bear the cost of its own member of the tribunal and of its representation in the arbitral proceedings. The cost of the Chairman and the remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by the Contracting Parties, unless the arbitral tribunal decides otherwise.
7. The decisions of the tribunal are final and binding for each Contracting Party.

Article 12 Other Commitments

1. If the provisions of law of either Contracting Party or obligations under international law existing at present or established hereafter, whether general or specific, entitle investments by investors of the other Contracting Party to a treatment more favourable than is provided for by the present Agreement, such provisions or obligations shall to the extent that they are more favourable prevail over the present Agreement as long as they last.

5. This Agreement may be amended by written agreement between the Contracting Parties. Any amendment shall enter into force under the same procedure required for the entry into force of the present Agreement.
6. This Agreement shall be applied irrespective of whether or not the Contracting Parties have diplomatic or consular relations.
